MILK DEALERS UP IN ARMS.

Will Organize Against Alleged Tyrannical Inspectors.

Brooklyn Merchants Will Endeavor to Have Present Law Repealed.

The milk dealers of Brooklyn have been complaining among themselves of what they allege is tyrannical treatment on the part of the inspectors appointed by Health Commissioner Emery. The arbitrary conduct, these dealers assert, has gone to such lengths that in self-defense they have determined to form an association for mutual protection, and to have repealed, if possible, the present law governing milk inspection.

The law requires that the milk must not contain more than 80 per cent. of water, and not less than 1 per cent. of solids, in which 15 per cent. of fat must not be less than 3 per cent. of fat.

Commissioner Emery has instructed the inspector to seize any milk the specific gravity of which does not register 1.03 by the lactometer. The milk dealers assert that this requirement is unjust, as, because of the long distance during the summer, the cattle were deprived of good grass, and their milk is consequently poorer.

Another cause of complaint lies in the fact that the Health Commissioner will not permit the sale of skim milk in Brooklyn, and as cream is the lightest part of milk the lactometer registers a correspondingly low figure.

During the past six months there have been more than three hundred milk dealers arrested, and a fine of $25 was imposed in almost every instance. Right here is another cause for complaint on the part of the dealers. The majority of these cases have been tried before Justice Walsh, who, it is said, will not accept any evidence in refutation of the analysis made by the chemist of the Health Department, but invariably takes such analysis as conclusive evidence.

As the milk dealers are not summoned to court for a month or more after the inspector has taken a sample of their milk, they state that they have no means of tracing the milk, a sample of which has been taken, as it frequently happens, that one dealer procures a supply for another because of unusually heavy sales.

A meeting for preliminary organization will be held Thursday evening, but the hall in which it will be held has not been determined upon, as there are over one thousand dealers in Brooklyn, and it is intended to select a central place for the meeting as possible.

POUNDED THE CONDUCTOR.

Two Smokers Forebore Object to the Rule and Are Fined.

Henry Meyer, of Twentieth street, and Henry Specker, of Fulton street, Brooklyn, were each fined $10 by Justice Tighe in the Butler Street Police Court, Brooklyn, this morning for assaulting Conductor William Lendrum, of the Atlantic Avenue Railroad Company. The men pleaded guilty.

Lendrum says they boarded his car at Concord and Adams street Saturday night and persisted in smoking on the platform.

At Ninth avenue and Twentieth street they began to hammer Lendrum and were arrested.

BOY SAYS HE HAD TO STEAL.

Albert Van Ness Confesses to Many Small Burglaries.

Declares that His Stepmother Drove Him from Home.

Robert Gray, a colored boy, was held for the Grand Jury by Justice Walsh in the Adams Street Court, Brooklyn, today, on the charge of burglary. Albert Van Ness, aged fifteen, was arrested with Gray and pleaded guilty.

Van Ness admits having served three terms in the House of Refuge, and twenty-nine days in Bayside street jail. Since he was released from jail he has been implicated in at least ten burglaries. Detective Kearney thinks Van Ness was concerned in many of the petty robberies in Chinatown during the past few weeks.

Van Ness says his mother and stepfather live somewhere on Hoyt street, and that his stepfather turned him out of the house three years ago. Since then he says he has had to shift for himself.

While in the House of Refuge he got acquainted with Gray. He says he was forced to steal to get money to secure a bed in a cheap lodging-house. He admits that he has robbed several Chinamen.

"I worked the 'chinks' on Sunday," he said, "when they are at Sunday school or in Matt street. Then I broke into an Italian's place in North alley and stole two watches."

The boy said that he had robbed many small stores of chewing gum and cigarettes. On Friday he broke into Joseph Koch's store, 235 Pearl street, and got a quantity of tobacco.

He says Gray smokes cigarettes. Detective Kearney saw Gray consume a great many cigarettes and suspected that the goods had been stolen. Gray was arrested last night and confessed that Van Ness had supplied him with smoking materials. Van Ness says that Gray had nothing to do with any of the robberies. Van Ness says he is a kind typewriter.

"Several jobs were offered to me," he said, "but when I told them that I learned my trade in the House of Refuge they turned me away. There wasn't nothing for me to do but steal."

ANXIOUS ABOUT NOMINEES.

Some Won't Run Who Are Wanted and Some Will Who Are Not.

Trouble About Evenly Divided Between Shepherds and Regulars.

The leaders of the Shepard Democracy in Kings County held an informal conference at the Montague street headquarters, Brooklyn, this morning to determine who should be the nominee for County Register in the event of Frederick W. Hinrichs refusing to run. No decision was reached.

Mr. Hinrichs has a $200 position. His friends are anxious to have him run, as they claim he stands a good chance of winning.

The leaders received word from Mr. Hinrichs this morning that he would give them a definite answer this afternoon. If he decides to run on the Shepard ticket against Granville W. Hurlman, a Republican nominee, and Michael J. Cummings, the regular Democrat, he will resign as Register of Arrivals and at once become an active canvasser.

Mr. Hinrichs is the only one of the Shepard nominees. It is said, who is in doubt on the question of acceptance. Among the regulars, instead of urging nominees to accept, there is talk of urging some of the candidates to get off the ticket. The strongest opposition in the ranks is directed against Michael J. Cummings for Register and George J. Glendinning for County Clerk.

"I have heard," said Chairman James D. Bell this morning, "that Glendinning is to be asked to resign, but I know nothing definite about it. As far as I am concerned I am not going to ask Glendinning of anything else to resign from the ticket. Let the people who nominated him ask him to resign if they don't want him to run."

There is bitter feeling expressed against Cummings because he was raised up in the Republican celebration. The Young Men's Democratic Club will meet in Brooklyn this night to denounce his nomination and that of Glendinning. The Assembly tickets of the Shepard wing and several conventions will be held tonight.

The attending physician told the delegation that the nominee was in such a critical condition that he would probably die.

Another candidate will be nominated tonight in his place.

The Republicans and Democrats will hold their ward and town conventions tonight to make nominations for Supervisors and Constables.

Secretary A. Kostrom, of the United German Democracy of Kings County, sent a notice out today for a special meeting to be held in Brooklyn Thursday night. The meeting is called for the purpose of endorsing the third State ticket.

While the organization will endorse the third ticket, the members are not in favor of voting for the Shepard local candidates. On Thursday night, Mr. Kostrom said today, the organization would endorse the Republican county and city ticket.

YOUNG HUSBAND MISSING.

His Child-Wife Believes His Father Spirited Him Away.

Sir is Sixteen and His Bride of Two Months Is but Fourteen Years Old.

(Special to The Evening World.) ELIZABETH, N. J., Oct. 15.—The police of this city are looking for Henry Siry, a youthful bridegroom, who, his child wife alleges, has been spirited away from her by his father.

Young Siry is only sixteen years old, and two months ago was married to a girl who was not quite fourteen. Siry's father, who is a baker on Centre street, here, strongly objected to the union, but the youthful couple were determined to overcome all obstacles, and finally the elder Siry gave his reluctant consent, and Justice Jacobs, of Elizabeth, tied the knot.

Siry worked for his father, but the mother of his bride was ambitious that he should strike out for himself, and she hired a bakery on Elizabeth avenue, intending to put him in charge.

When the elder Siry learned this he was furious, and vowed, it is said, that he would spoil the scheme. His son left home Thursday morning, telling his bride he would be back at noon. The bakery was to have been opened on Saturday.

Nothing has been seen or heard of him since, and Mrs. Siry is positive that her father-in-law has something to do with his disappearance. She is now in the hands of the police, who are looking for him.

Chief of Police Tenney has a clue upon which he expects to secure the missing bridegroom.
